THE LIMITED EDITION COLLECTION

WALTER & HERBERT
MADE IN ENGLAND
1946

ABOUT THE COLLECTION

Our design team have lovingly developed a beautiful Limited Edition Walter & Herbert collection.

In homage to our English heritage, we have named these frames after iconic stately homes in the South of England - Clandon Park, Hatchlands Park, Loseley Park and Polesden Lacey.

There are 100 pieces of each model available and are individually numbered on the temple tips. The frames features an etched design on the metal temples and a bold pattern on the inside. Created using beta titanium and Mazzucchelli acetate, the Limited Edition collection offers a premium, lightweight feel whilst exuding luxury.

Each frame is displayed in a black wooden box accompanied by a genuine leather keyring, also handmade in England, a large lens cloth, a booklet about the collection and a glossy black case.

LOSELEY

A refined and modern approach to the classic round-eye. Elegant in shape, the keyhole bridge makes this frame stylish and comfortable. Rich black acetate gives Loseley a stylish and sophisticated look.
